A MONTHLY JOURNAL OF WCWA

Volume 6, Issue 46

Everett, Washington

September, 1863 (2010)

Entered according to an Act of Congress by both the Union & Confederate governments, in the Year 1865, in the Clerk's Offices of the District Courts.

A Rebel's Recipe- Ann Clarke- 10th VA.

Best Ever Banana Pudding

- 1 ½ cups light brown sugar, packed
- 2 Tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 (11-12 oz. can evaporated milk, shaken well
- ¾ cup water                      3 eggs
- 1/8 teaspoon salt      1 teaspoon vanilla
- ¼ cup butter
- 1 (12oz.) box Nabisco Nilla wafers
- 4-6 ripe bananas

Topping:

2 cups heavy cream, beaten with 2 tablespoons powdered sugar. 1 cup vanilla wafer crumbs.

Whisk together brown sugar, flour, evaporated milk, water, eggs, salt and vanilla in a heavy saucepan or the top of a double boiler over a little simmering water. Add butter and cook over medium heat, stirring, until the butter melts. Reduce heat to low and cook slowly, stirring often, until the mixture thickens and just starts to look a little curdled. Remove from heat and cool slightly. Place a layer of vanilla wafers in the bottom of a 13x9 inch glass baking dish, slice the bananas into rounds and place a layer of rounds on top of the wafers.
Top with about half the pudding mixture, spreading to completely seal the wafers and bananas. Repeat layers, ending with pudding.
Refrigerate until chilled. Top with whipped topping and sprinkle with vanilla wafer crumbs.

Electioneering

From the Chairman—Al Meyers

I wish to thank everyone for allowing me the honor to serve as your chairman this past year.

I started this position without knowing what I was getting into. I have learned a lot but realize that there is a lot I have yet to learn and I am continuing my education from my own research and experience as well as from talking with other club members and learning from the vast knowledge we collectively have.

When I was elected chairman last year one thing I vowed to do was to bring before the board any changes to the club that members would like to have considered. I have been able to follow through with that commitment and have brought forward your ideas for consideration. If reelected I will continue to do that.

One thing I would like to achieve this year is to find some way of holding the meeting online as well as in person so the voting members who would like to have input but can't get to the meeting because of distance can log on and attend the meeting over the internet.

This would allow more members to participate and provide input.

I have enjoyed serving as your chairman this last year and I hope I've earned your vote for the coming year.

Greetings everyone. My name is Elizabeth Sier. I am very honored to have been nominated for the position of Confederate Civilian Coordinator. With my husband, George, I have just completed my second full season with the WCWA. We have participated in all 4 main events and two others. I have assisted Anna Flores this year with membership records and I worked with Anna to put together a successful application to the Combined Federal Campaign for contributions to be made to the WCWA by Federal Employees in King County and North Puget Sound in 2011. I will work with Anna to go to all CFC campaigns in Washington State for 2012 contributions. I truly enjoy this organization and want to see it continue to grow and serve the public while we all have FUN and enjoy ourselves. I want to thank you in advance for your votes.

My fellow members of the WCWA, my name is Ernie Sherrill. I am running for the position of Vice Chairman, of our fine club. I have been in this role before, in other clubs and organizations., so the responsibilities and duties are not unfamiliar to me. I have a strong sense of responsibility, and integrity. I would like your vote for me, and your confidence in my abilities, to help lead our club in the right direction.

I am currently the Commanding Officer of the Tahoma Naval Shoreparty. I have been a member in good standing of the WCWA, for over 15 years, and have watched our club grow in size and stature.

If elected, I will have a wonderful example to follow, in Howard Struve.

*LCDR John Sherrill , Commanding,
US Tahoma , Columbia River Squadron , WCWA*

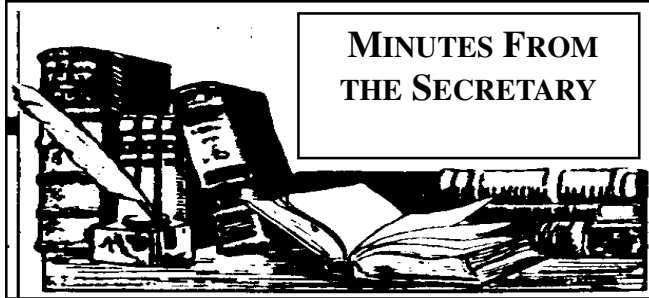

My name is Erena Heino, I have been nominated for the position of Union Civilian Leader. I have been re-enacting with the Washington Civil War Association since 2005. I am with the 1st Regiment of Mounted Riflemen.

Since 2007 I have been portraying a 19th century schoolmarm. This started as an independent college study course integrating my love of teaching and history, The youth in our organization have a lot to contribute.

If I am elected as Union Civilian leader I will encourage more recruiting, education, and the portrayal of every aspect of civilian life from the town blacksmith, to the merchant and seamstress. I have job experience in event programming ,as well as education. I have the time and energy to dedicate to this position. I humbly ask for your vote.

Mrs. Erena Heino

Hello everyone. My name is George Sier. I am honored to have been nominated for the position of Confederate Battalion Command. I have just completed my second full season with WCWA and have enjoyed my time in this organization greatly. I have been with the 26th North Carolina serving as a private and then, for 2010, as Quarter Master Sgt. My wife, Beth, and I attend almost every Board meeting. We have attended every major event in 2009 and 2010 as well as others and some in Oregon. I would like to give back something to this great organization. To that end, I would be very grateful for your vote.

\*** Membership paperwork/money can be filled out and sent to your commanders for the 2011 year. Commanders please make sure that you have given your unit members the correct address to send membership papers/money too. Then Commanders double check that all pertinent data has been filled out on the new applications, which can be downloaded from WCWA website. Then send in all collected paperwork/money to the treasurer, Anna Flores. Remember due date for membership paperwork/money is December 31st. Thank you for your help in making sure that membership is done in a timely/efficient manner for the 2011 year. Sandy*

Committee Reports:

Event Planning- Applications for 2011 events are available. Please make sure, event coordinators to fill out the event application and send a proposed budget to EPC Chair, Howard Struve. They are due by Sept. 10,2010. From these applications for events , a tentative schedule for the 2011 can be made. Remember the event schedule for 2011 will be voted on at the October meeting. Thank you to those Event Coordinators who have all ready turned in their application and budget proposals. It is greatly appreciated by the EPC. The EPC has been checking on the proposed events and their sites. Howard and Tom visited the site on the proposed Mt. Rainier Scenic Railroad event. It would be held in September. Different Civilian/Military Scenarios would be decided upon by the WCWA. It would be a single day event, no insurance is being requested by the Mt. Rainier committee from the WCWA. More information/details will be shared later.

Plain, WA event site was also visited by members of the EPC. It would be held on private property and the owner is being very accommodating to the needs of the WCWA for this event. It is a very cute little town. It would be held in Sept. or October. There are many facilities. WCWA would be able to collect ticket sales. It would be a full weekend event but right now there is no one willing to be the Event Coordinator.

Another proposed event would be held in July. It would be held at Fulbright Park in Yakima. WCWA would have to pay a fee to rent place. This park is located along Interstate 80. The battle site would be a flat, open field.

Pt. Gamble- A meeting was held with the facility manager. It will be held in June again but would happen the last weekend in June.

Publicity Opportunities-

Michael Glaze gave the WCWA video made at Pt. Gamble in 2009. Board members had an opportunity to view this video after meeting. It may be put on website to promote the club and its activities.

Seattle Convention Center-This is when government employees can choose which organizations to contribute to and it is tax deductible. The King Countys' kickoff is held at the end of September and the WCWA could have a table and promote the club by sharing a video or two, setting up a presentation, and dressing in period correct attire. More information will be forthcoming on this opportunity at the next meeting or contact Beth Sier.

Unfinished Business:

Nominations are being accepted for elected positions of the WCWA executive board. Send your nominations to Alaina at huck15avi@gmail.com. Please make sure that the person you nominate is willing to run for the position. Ballots will be put on website and in Dispatch. These can be printed and filled out. \**** It is the responsibility of the member to make sure that their ballot is filled out correctly and mailed to the election committee coordinator. An address, where completed ballots should be sent to will be forthcoming.*

Nominations close at the end of August. Ballots will be accepted by the committee through October. Ballots will only be counted if the member is a current paid member of the WCWA club. Any questions about the ballot, talk to Al Myers.

Nominations :

Chairman- Shelley Butterfield, Al Myers
Vice Chair- Howard Struve
Secretary-
Treasurer- Anna Flores
Union Commander- Ryan Wilder, Ted Sayler
CSA Commander- George Sier, Tobey Gulley
Union Civilian – Erena Heino
CSA Civilian – Beth Sier

New Business:

CB requested to be in charge of VMI. His request was granted by the board. Thanks CB.

Past Event Reports:

1. Gold Bar- 300 people came through camp. 30 re-enactors participated. The colors were retired, the cannon fired at 8:00 am each day. This event was highly received by the public. The WCWA was treated well. More participation by WCWA would be greatly appreciated by Gold Bar.

Upcoming Events:

Echoes of the Blue/ Gray Ceremony- Evergreen Cemetery- Everett, WA- September 11, 2010.

WCWA gets paid to participate in this event.

\**Please make an effort to be part of this event.*

They would like the WCWA to set up displays, tents, participate in a skirmish etc. The cemetery would like to expand this event. It may be held at a different time next year but for 2010- Evergreen Cemetery- September 11.

It follows the WCWA Board meeting which will be held at the cemetery at 10:00.

Unit Reports:

Tahoma Marines-Participated in the Bangor evening parade. 14 marines were present. They marched with their fellow marines. There was a surprise artillery firing. The marines were invited back. This was a community event so it was held off base.

July 23-25-150th anniversary of the Battle of Bull Run is being celebrated. The Tahoma marines will be participating with the marine battalion at this event in 2011.

Zouave re-enactors are also being invited to be a part of this battle and the re-enactors are able to wear their units' uniform so they would not be expected to have the same uniform as the Zouave Brigade back east. For more information on this event, contact

Howard Struve or Norm Harriman.

4th US- Attended the Ferndale event and is looking forward to the Ft. Stevens event

Announcements:

August 20-Tacoma Cheney Stadium will be hosting an event. Period attire is mandatory to participate in this event.

1st Mounted Rifles want to send out a GREAT Big Thank you to the 1st Cavalry for being willing to mentor and support their unit.

Adjournment-11:21

Next meeting-

Evergreen Cemetery,
Everett, WA-
September 11-10:00 am
Right before the Echoes of Blue/Gray Ceremony /
Event starts. Please try to attend this event.
Secretary,
Sandy Burwell

I am proud to announce the winner of the 2010 14th Virginia Cavalry Raffle. The 14th Virginia Cavalry held a raffle for a 1855 Springfield Rifled Musket

The WINNER:

Scott Christiansen, a Spokane County Deputy Sheriff and avid firearms collector, purchased a ticket at the Spokane Gun Show and was extremely happy to receive the winning phone call.

The proceeds are going to help purchase unit equipment to further our presentations and participation at all events and presentations.

We are also donating $100.00 from the Raffle to the Virginia Military Institute to help CB get the kids off to a great 2011.

Thank you to everyone that participated.

Rick Callesto
1st Lieutenant
Executive Officer
14th Virginia Cavalry

The Mason-Dixon Township
By Linda Myers, CSA Civilian Leader

The first season is finished for our newly organized CSA Civilian community, "The Mason-Dixon Township".

As a "home in town", we have enjoyed the search for "household items" and the opportunity to show and explain their uses to our visitors.

We have so many ways to grow as a Town: the farmers widow trying to eke out a living on the edge of the city growing around her, the refugee family taking cover in the discarded tent in an alley, the wealthy heiress on the hill, an injured soldier home with his family recuperating from his battle wounds, the shopkeeper, the school teacher, the preacher and so many more.

There is any number of ways to build a persona for those who wish be a part of city life. It is not necessary to join the Civilian unit to set up with the Town, give me a call before an event and give it a try.

Banana Pudding

The South's Favorite Dessert- Banana Pudding

Everyone will agree that only in the South banana pudding is quintessentially Southern. It is so connected to this part of the world, at Carolinas barbecue restaurants, if dessert is offered at all, it is usually banana pudding. It can be made cheaply in big quantities and turned out in sheet pans or disposable aluminum trays at church potlucks. I like to dress it up and use a trifle bowl. But why is banana pudding Southern?

Bananas are everywhere. In the U.S., they're ahead of apples and oranges as the most consumed fruit. Nabisco's Nilla Wafers are sold nationally, with the recipe on the box. But banana pudding isn't everywhere. In an informal poll, with four Northern cities these were the results. Milwaukee, banana pudding doesn't show up at all, just banana cream pie. In Minneapolis and Pittsburgh food editors had only seen it in African-American owned restaurants. It is widespread in Chicago, where many Southern black families moved in search of work during the Depression. It is still strongly connected to family events, particularly potlucks.

Tracing it back one piece of the puzzle is the bananas. Starting in the 1800's, they were imported through Southern ports, particularly New Orleans. Before the 1860's when, Standard Fruit moved to Gulfport, Mississippi, so many bananas came ashore in New Orleans that watching the unloading became a tourist attraction. Author Joe Dabney offers another Southern connection in his 1998 book "Smokehouse Ham, Spoonbread and Scupper-nong Wine." I have this book I suggest it for Southern cooks. Starting in 1880, bananas shipped from New Orleans by the Illinois Railroad were stored in Fulton, Ky., before they were dispersed across the country. The town used to celebrate its role as 'banana capital of the world' with a yearly banana pudding festival, a tradition that continued into the 1990's.

Stephen Criswell teaches folklore and English composition at the University of South Carolina Lancaster. A native of Gaston Co. he likes to trace food origins he wrote the puddings entry for the 'Foodways' edition of "The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture." He got the assignment after he and editor John T. Edge went to see Southern Culture on the Skids and heard their song "Banana Puddin'."

"I married my wife partly based on her ability to make banana pudding," Criswell says. "A good Southern boy, I had to marry somebody who could cook like my mother." Criswell couldn't say why banana pudding mostly stayed here. But he had theories on why it started here. He noted the strong resemblance between banana pudding and English puddings, which were generally anything that combined soft cake and custard. "Technically, it's not a pudding, it's a trifle and it's sweet." There's that Southern fondness for excessive sweetness." The South has always had strong Anglo-Celtic ties that turn up in the origins of recipes-particularly desserts that don't call for long baking times in the sultry heat.

Take the Easy Way Out!!! Stop Rolling Yer Own !!

If you are tired of rolling & pouring your own cartridges, especially at the last minute during an event, my sons and I will do it for you.

We will cut/ roll paper, and pour a pound of powder for $25.

Orders must be placed no less than one week before an event.

We may be contacted at cap10inwa@comcast.net.

I find one pound of powder is sufficient for a weekend event.

Feel free to place orders during the off-season for future events.

My name is David Carter and I have been a Civil War and Indian Wars reenactor since I was 8 years old (now 38). The time has come that I clean out the closets, boxes and garage to sell the vast collection of original and reproduction items that I have acquired over the years (Some of the items are listed below). As of late, I have been unable to muster the energy or excitement or been able to break free from the confines of work to spend with wonderful people such as yourself, to continue on in the reenactment world. Reenacting has taken me across our landscape from coast to coast, been on the cover and inside of three books, several magazines, modeled for a bronze sculpture and loaded many a round down the muzzle of my weapons. But, the time has come to turn the page of my own book. I can provide photos if needed or drive a short distance to show (Lake Stevens). All items are in very good or good condition as I continually cared for my equipment and uniforms.

Thanks in advance,
 David Carter 425-652-9059 dc3tc1@hotmail.com

Items include in part:

1. Several uniforms confederate and federal, most hand sewn, butternut, gray, navy blue, sizes up to 42" chest and 32" waist (I grew alot between 8 years old and 38 years old so I have several uniforms to part with). Some are C & D Jarnigan, so the finest in quality, federal great coat.
2. Tin items, CS drum canteen, confederate butternut round, federal round, personal camp pot with lid repro, dippers, 1 personal original camp pot with lid in very good condition as seen in several museums around the country, personal skillets, forks, etc.
3. Haversacks 3, 1 confederate white, 2 federal black.
4. Federal double side pack with original hardware, 'Stewart' made highest quality from original pattern.
5. Jarnigan leather: cartridge boxes brown and black, cap boxes brown and black, belts brown and black, scabbard black
6. Belt plates, box plates, sling plates: Alot of all and both sides, depending upon which unit we were portraying at the time.
7. Buttons, too many to list, you name it, I probably have them.
8. Knives 2, 1 original from G'burg in hand made leather sheath, 1 reproduction, both nice items and carryable.
9. Shelter halves, 2, forming complete tent.
10. Two piece candle holder with candles, unscrews, as seen in 'Flaydermans', repro.
11. Open for discussion to sell: Civil War drum and sling, original 1816 conversion musket with bayonet, original 1861 Springfield Rifle with bayonet, original 1863 Ames musician sword (fine), original 1859 Ames Cavalry Sword (fine and very rare year), Very large collection of books, original song book from the civil war in very good condition, original discharge and enlistment documents from misc soldiers, etc, etc....
